

RP Financial, LC. Assisted With De Novo Business Plan and Financial Projections for Regulatory Applications Filed by Organizers of Marathon International Bank

In January 2018, Organizers of Marathon International Bank filed a de novo charter application with the District of Columbia Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking and a deposit insurance application with the FDIC to open a bank in Washington, DC, that will focus on serving the Ethiopian-American community.

RP Financial assisted the Organizers with the preparation of the de novo strategic business plan and financial projections in connection with the applications.

The bank plans to raise $22 million to $25 million by selling common stock.
